Dear Warden Taylor

1-17-17

I David T. Jones 306915 housed on B-S-C is writing to you about my warrants.

Warden Taylor I will like to know why I'm locked up in this County Jail and yall don't have no signed warrant from a Judicial officer to hold me.

I do have proof that the original warrants aint signed. And please don't say that the detective signature is a signed warrant, cause it's not he just swearing that the statement he gave is true.

I'm trying to figure out why I been sitting in this jail for 20 months and the jail don't have sign warrants. I asked to Sgts. to go do to admissions and get me a copy of a sign warrant because I need it for ~~the~~ Court and they both stated that they admission Sgts. said they don't have none and sent warrants up that wasn't the original. Well I'm send you copies of all of them and of the originals that aint signed.

I hope you could send somebody to speak to me about this.

Yours Truly

David T. Jones David T. Jones

him with a 5 to 6 inch long silver kitchen knife and stabbed him several times. Someone pulled Troy off of Branch and Troy left the area on foot towards South 10th Street and Carl Miller Blvd.

CSI Boulger #755 was notified, responded and took photographs of the scene and Branch. RTTOIC was notified of the above.

Investigation:

Detective Crawford and I interviewed Parker in the CCPD Detective Bureau. Parker confirmed the story stating she has known Troy for approximately 13 years but could not recall his last name. She did know where Troy lives. We transported Parker by Troy's residence at 731 Chelton Street. Parker positively identified Troy's house. We talked to Troy's mother, Jeanne Jones at 731 Chelton Street. Jeanne was already aware of the situation and was visibly upset. Jeanne stated her son's name is Troy Jones with a DOB of [redacted]. Jeanne stated Troy had not been home nor did she know where he may have gone. Jeanne stated Troy has a long history of emotional issues and takes prescribed medication for them. Jeanne also admitted Troy has problems with alcohol and drug use, specifically smoking Wet.

Detective Crawford and I went to Cooper Medical Center and talked to the trauma center team. They confirmed Branch had come through the trauma center with multiple stab wounds and was currently in surgery. They stated Branch's injuries are not life threatening and he would be in the Intensive Care Unit after surgery and would not be able to be interviewed until he was stable sometime tomorrow, Friday April 17, 2015.

On April 17, 2015, Detectives Jenkins, Crawford and I interviewed and obtained a taped statement from the victim, Mychael Branch, in Cooper Medical Center Intensive Care Unit. Branch confirmed the accounts of the assault and positively identified the suspect, David Troy Jones.
